The Bay Area Program

A MODEL FOR SUCCESS

- The Program was developed by Bay Area local governments in collaboration with US EPA, Cal EPA Department of Toxic Substances Control and the business community.
- Since 1997 the program has grown to include 1000 + businesses throughout 9 participating counties.
- Coordinated by the Association of Bay Area Governments.

Indy's Green Business Program

- Program was launched in Summer of 2008.
- Coordinated through the Indy Chamber of Commerce.
- Was modeled after the Bay Area Program.
- Approval process is lax compared to BA Program requirements.
 - Single qualifying rank unlike BA Program (which is similar to LEED certification)

Green Business Program

PLEDGE

- Certified businesses pledge to continually strive toward environmentally safe and sustainable practices and operations which better the overall environmental health and well-being of the City. Along with pledging to meet all of the most current federal, state, and local environmental regulations, certified businesses also agree to the submittal of an annual report outlining any by-products or wastes of production.

GOALS

- To market AIGBP certified businesses to the local community as model practices for environmental health and sustainability.
- To serve as an environmental public policy conduit between businesses and other interested organizations.
- To increase awareness of the economic advantages of “green” practices to both local businesses and the community.
- To provide the framework and connections necessary for a local industrial ecology, reducing waste from production and encouraging the reuse of materials.

REWARDS FOR CERTIFICATION

- Certified Businesses will be recognized as committed to a more environmentally sustainable City through their practices and operations.
- Depending on the level of certification, businesses will enjoy an array of benefits detailed below:
 - Business name, logo, and link displayed on AIGBP website.
 - Business advertisement on AIGBP and Chamber website.
 - Business profile and advertisement on Herald Bulletin, Pendleton Times, and WQME.
 - Access to digital copy of “Green Business” logo to be used for marketing purposes.
 - 5” X 7” “Green Business” window cling.
